Brag Sheet

Alex recently finished her 4th year at the U of L pursuing a BFA in Dramatic Arts Performance. She has been singing for 5 years. Alex's favourite thing about music is how it taps into our emotions in a way that simply speaking typically can't do. Alex would love to be on the writing team for a musical one day.

Alexis is in Grade 10 and has been studying voice for six years. Her favourite thing about music is talking about it. Alexis works at Catwalk and brings her signature sass to every lesson.

Angela is a stay-at-home mom with 2 teenage daughters and 2 adult sons. She has been studying voice for 25+ years. Angela's favourite thing about music is how it allows us to feel and express things in a way that nothing else can. She loves collecting things and treat shopping like a treasure hunt. Angela is not a minimalist.

Eden is graduating from Immanuel Christian High School this spring and has been studying voice for about 5 years. Her favourite thing about music is the dopamine and the good vibes. Eden especially loves having good chats with her cat friends, Nutmeg, River, Martin, and Lucy.

Grace is in Grade 9 F.P. Walsche in Fort Macleod. She has been taking singing lessons for 3 years, and loves to sing because it makes her happy. Grace comes from a big family, and has one sister and four brothers.

Greg has been playing piano since he was 7 years old. He graduated from the U of L with a Bachelor of Arts in History in 1989 and with a Bachelor of Music in 1993. Greg loves working with students and sharing crazy trivia with them. He also loves old pop music, Tchaikovsky, and chocolate.

Heather is a recent graduate of Lethbridge College, and works in a bakery part-time along with serving as a dining room assistant in a senior's home. She has been studying voice privately for 6 years, but has been singing since she was in elementary. Heather loves to learn different songs, and has enhanced hearing.

Makayla is in Grade 10 and has been studying voice for two years. Her favourite thing about music is how it allows her to be creative and express how she feels in a way that she loves. Makayla also played the saxophone for three years.

Megan completed her Master of Music degree at the U of L in 2015. Megan's favourite thing about music is storytelling. The Little Lethbridge Opera Company will be hitting stages all over Southern Alberta this summer, so come check out a show! In her free time, Megan enjoys drinking iced coffee and cheering on the Toronto Blue Jays and Edmonton Oilers.

Riley is graduating from Chinook High School this Spring. He has been recommended to the Alberta Provincial Music Festival for the second year in a row, this time for Contemporary Voice and Musical. Riley also enjoys speed skating and playing with his band, Titled.

Sarah is a New Media major at the U of L. She has been taking lessons for about 4 years, and her favourite thing about music is how it can suit any mood you're in. Sarah has always been interested in art, both drawing and music.

Sophia recently finished her fourth year of her Bachelor of Music degree in vocal performance. She has been singing for about 10 years, and loves how music brings people together. Sophia was born in Finland.

Victoria is a fourth-year biochemistry major, and has been taking singing lessons for 5 years. Her favourite thing about music is its ability to communicate feelings that are difficult to express with just words. Before moving to Lethbridge for university, Victoria had never been to Lethbridge!
